

LAHRA Member Certification Scholarship

The Lakeshore Human Resources Association SHRM chapter established this scholarship to assist members in becoming SHRM Certified Professionals, advancing their careers and continuing development as an HR professional. SHRM Certification demonstrates you have knowledge and proficiency in the HR field. SHRM reports that certified professionals earn an average of 14-15% higher salaries than peers without, while giving leverage in the job market to secure HR jobs or promotions faster.

Application Requirements

Award Details:

- Total Awards: (2) Annually
- Amount per Award: $500

Application Criteria:

- Must be a member of LAHRA Chapter (all dues paid, if applicable)
- Must meet the eligibility requirements of a SHRM Certification
- Applicants must apply for a SHRM Certification testing window within 12 months of receiving award of scholarship.
- Scholarship will be issued upon receipt of proof of purchasing the test.
- Applicant must not be receiving employer/organization reimbursement in-full for the SHRM certification exam and preparation materials.

Application Deadline: All Application materials must be submitted between January 1-31st and October 1-31st, annually.

Application Review: Reviewed by LAHRA Board of Directors during the February and November board meetings.

Application Process: To apply for this scholarship, please send the following documents to certification@lahrashrm.org.

- Complete the application below.
- Attach a resume.
- Write a brief essay that describes why you would like to pursue SHRM certification and what plans you have for test preparation.

Award Application

Applicant's Name:

Expected Testing Window:

Address:

Phone:

Email: